

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Thank you for selecting Solomon & Sons Relocation Services for your International Relocation. This binding estimate is provided based on the items and services you requested at the time of preparation. The estimate is binding and reflects the specific items and services listed. The price quoted is guaranteed unless additional services are required or extra items are added to your inventory. Please review the estimate carefully for accuracy. If any changes need to be made to the services or items, please notify the estimator at least 72 hours before your scheduled move date. The accuracy of the estimate relies on the completeness of the information provided about the items to be moved. Please note that any modifications to your order will result in a corresponding adjustment to the estimated price. We encourage you to verify the accuracy of the services and items listed and inform your salesperson of any desired changes. If you request last-minute services or add additional items on the day of the move, a new written estimate reflecting the updated total price will be provided. In such cases, the revised estimate must be approved and signed by you before any services are performed. The Estimated Transportation Cost is binding based on the total volume (Cu. Ft.) indicated. This document is an estimate and not a contract. Please note that we offer Free In-Home estimates upon request, subject to service location limitations. For LCL (Less than a container load) shipments, the final rate will be determined after measuring at our facility and the shipping line.
